

Massive Technical Solutions Ltd.

TERMS & CONDITIONS OF HIRE

For the purpose of these conditions, "The Company" shall be deemed to refer to "Massive Technical Solutions Ltd" and "The Customer" to any Company, partnership or individual who shall enter into any hire agreement with "Massive Technical Solutions Ltd" which under the terms of English Law might be defined as a Contract.

All Equipment hired remains the property of the Company.

Hire charges are based on the period of the contract, irrespective of whether or not the equipment is in use.

Hire commences upon delivery to / collection by the Customer and ceases upon return to the Company. Equipment is not regarded as returned to the Company until it is checked and inspected by an authorised member of the Company's staff.

The Customer will be responsible for ensuring that any relevant regulations or statutory provisions governing, or relating to, the use of the hired equipment are complied with during the period of the hire and the Company in no way assumes liability for the consequences of any non-compliance with such regulations, rules or statutory provisions.

Equipment will be supplied to the Customer in normal working order. The Company's liability for defect or failure of the equipment hired is limited to the rectification of any defect or failure arising from normal usage.

The Company cannot be responsible for any injuries to personnel or damage to property consequential to and arising from any improper use of the equipment by the Customer or by any other person, whether or not authorised by the Customer, during the period of hire.

The Customer undertakes to ensure that the Company's equipment shall not be used for any purposes beyond its capacity or in any manner likely to result in undue deterioration of the equipment.

Where the Customer has erected equipment or modified a structure supplied by the Company, the Company will not be responsible for injuries to personnel or damage to property consequential to, or arising from this structure.

Equipment hired must not be altered by the Customer or modified in any way. In particular, cables must not be cut and plugs and sockets must not be rewired by the Customer. Any equipment found to have been modified or in any way altered, and any cables or components found to have been damaged by cutting or attempts at modification will be charged at replacement price upon return.

Any damage to, failure of or defect in any hired equipment must be notified to the Company within 24 hours of its occurrence. In the absence of such notification the Customer will be charged with the cost of repair or replacement.

It is the Customer's responsibility to insure the hired equipment for loss or damage during the hire period. The total replacement value of the equipment should be covered by the insurance.

The Customer will be responsible for advising the Company as to the location of the hired equipment during the period of hire and of any changes in such location.

No equipment hired from the Company may be taken outside the mainland of Great Britain, either to any off-shore island or to any foreign country without the written consent of the Company.

It is an express condition of the hire that the Customer shall not offer for the hire to any third party or parties any equipment which is the property of the Company, without the written consent of the Company.

If agreed hire charges are not paid on the due date then the Company will reserve the right to repossess the hired items and will not be liable for any damage or loss which may be suffered by the Customer as a consequence of such repossession.

The Company reserves the right to levy a late payment charge and apply interest (calculated daily) should the Customer fail to meet the payment terms of the issued invoice without prior agreement with the Company.

In event of the Customer returning equipment later than the agreed return date, the Company shall, at its absolute discretion charge the Customer a daily fee up to the full hire value of the outstanding equipment until it is returned.

In the event of the equipment ordered not being available through circumstances beyond the control of the Company, the Company reserves the right to substitute equipment of similar quality for all or part of the hire.

Before issuing any equipment for hire, the Company may require a deposit from the Customer which may be any sum up to the full replacement cost of the equipment hired. Similarly the Company may, at its absolute discretion, require payment of the full hire charge in advance.

All cables must be returned in a neatly coiled state. Any cables which the Company deem to require recoiling will attract a charge of £1 per cable.

No information or data contained in any of the Company's catalogues, price lists or website shall be deemed to constitute any part of a contract of hire, such information being the purpose of general description only.
